Master Answer Key — Administrators Only

100 Questions · 5 Topics · Pass Threshold: 70% (first-attempt scoring)

Internal document. Includes correct answers, hints, and explanations for every question. Hand this to facilitators/administrators only. In the live quiz, choices are shuffled per attempt and trainees only see the hint after their first wrong answer, then the correct answer + explanation after a second wrong answer or as a learning aid after answering correctly.

Topic 1: Anger Management

20 questions

Q1. What is the FIRST thing to do when you feel anger rising?

- a. Pause and notice what's happening in your body ✓ CORRECT
- b. Tell the other person they're wrong
- c. Walk away without saying anything
- d. Vent on social media

HINT Anger has a physical signal before it turns into words or action.

EXPLANATION Noticing your body's signals is the earliest moment you can interrupt the reaction and choose your response.

Q2. Which is a common PHYSICAL warning sign of rising anger?

- a. Clenched jaw or fists, faster heartbeat, tight chest ✓ CORRECT
- b. Feeling sleepy
- c. Feeling hungry
- d. Clearer thinking

HINT Think about what your body does when it gets ready to fight or run.

EXPLANATION Anger triggers the fight-or-flight response, which clenches muscles, speeds up your heart, and tightens your chest.

Q3. The "ABC" model of anger refers to...

a. Activating event, Beliefs, Consequences ✓ CORRECT

- b. Always Be Calm
- c. Anger, Blame, Combat
- d. Acting, Breathing, Calming

HINT It's a framework about what happens before and after a reaction.

EXPLANATION ABC separates the trigger (A) from what you tell yourself about it (B) and the outcome (C). The B step is where most growth happens.

Q4. What does "counting to 10" before responding actually accomplish?

a. It gives your nervous system a moment to reset ✓ CORRECT

- b. It distracts you from the issue forever
- c. It makes the other person uncomfortable
- d. It proves you're calm

HINT There's a real biological reason this old advice works.

EXPLANATION Your initial fight-or-flight surge peaks within seconds; a pause lets your rational thinking come back online.

Q5. A "time-out" in anger management means...

a. Stepping away to calm down before continuing the conversation ✓ CORRECT

- b. Punishing the other person
- c. Permanently leaving the relationship
- d. Going silent for days

HINT It's a pause — not a permanent exit.

EXPLANATION Time-outs are temporary and meant to lower the temperature so the conversation can resume productively.

Q6. Which is a HEALTHY way to release built-up anger?

a. Physical exercise or going for a walk ✓ CORRECT

- b. Hitting walls
- c. Drinking alcohol
- d. Driving fast

HINT Anger creates physical energy — what's a safe way to use it?

EXPLANATION Exercise burns off the adrenaline anger generates, without harming yourself or anyone else.

Q7. Why do "I" statements help difficult conversations?

a. They focus on your feelings without blaming the other person ✓ CORRECT

- b. They make the other person defensive
- c. They end the conversation immediately
- d. They sound more aggressive

HINT Think about how people react to being accused vs. having someone share how they feel.

EXPLANATION Blame triggers defensiveness; describing your own experience invites listening.

Q8. Which is a good example of an "I" statement?

a. "I feel disrespected when meetings start without me" ✓ CORRECT

- b. "You always make me mad"
- c. "You're being stupid"
- d. "Everyone thinks you're wrong"

HINT Look for the format: I feel [emotion] when [specific situation].

EXPLANATION This formula names the feeling, ties it to a behavior, and avoids global accusations like 'you always.'

Q9. Which breathing pattern can quickly calm the nervous system?

a. Slow inhale for 4, hold for 4, slow exhale for 6+ ✓ CORRECT

- b. Hold your breath as long as possible
- c. Fast shallow breathing
- d. Breathing only through your mouth

HINT A longer exhale than inhale signals safety to your body.

EXPLANATION Slow breathing — especially a longer exhale — activates the parasympathetic nervous system, the body's brake pedal.

Q10. Anger itself is...

a. A normal human emotion — what you DO with it is what matters ✓ CORRECT

- b. Always wrong
- c. A sign of weakness
- d. Only a problem for men

HINT Emotions aren't right or wrong; behavior is.

EXPLANATION Anger signals something matters to you. The skill is choosing how to act on that signal.

Q11. Which is a common ANGER TRIGGER?

a. Feeling disrespected, dismissed, or unheard ✓ CORRECT

- b. Getting a good night's sleep
- c. Receiving compliments
- d. Eating a healthy meal

HINT Most anger has a relational cause underneath the situation.

EXPLANATION Beneath most anger is feeling threatened, devalued, or ignored. Naming the underlying feeling is the first step.

Q12. "Catastrophizing" during an argument means...

a. Making the situation seem far worse than it actually is ✓ CORRECT

- b. Calming the other person down
- c. Apologizing too much
- d. Listening carefully

HINT Think 'this will ruin everything' — even when it won't.

EXPLANATION Catastrophizing inflates conflicts and traps you in worst-case thinking. Naming it helps you step back to reality.

Q13. When you're TOO angry to talk productively, the best move is to...

a. Say "I need a few minutes — I'll come back to this" ✓ CORRECT

- b. Force the conversation now
- c. Walk out and never return
- d. Insult the person before leaving

HINT Walking away is fine; ghosting is not.

EXPLANATION Verbalizing the pause keeps the relationship intact while giving your nervous system time to reset.

Q14. Chronic, unmanaged anger has been linked to which health problem?

a. High blood pressure and heart disease ✓ CORRECT

- b. Improved vision
- c. Better sleep
- d. Stronger immune system

HINT Anger is a cardiovascular stressor.

EXPLANATION Sustained anger keeps blood pressure elevated and contributes to heart disease over time.

Q15. The HALT acronym in emotional self-awareness stands for...

a. Hungry, Angry, Lonely, Tired — common emotional triggers ✓ CORRECT

- b. Halt, Argue, Listen, Talk
- c. Help, Ask, Listen, Tell
- d. Hold Anger, Limit Talk

HINT It's about basic states that make us vulnerable.

EXPLANATION Before reacting, check whether you're H.A.L.T. — fixing the underlying state often dissolves the reaction.

Q16. Suppressing anger entirely (never expressing it) tends to lead to...

a. Resentment, passive-aggression, or eventual blowup ✓ CORRECT

- b. Healthier relationships
- c. Better health overall
- d. Faster conflict resolution

HINT Pressure with no release valve eventually finds one.

EXPLANATION Unexpressed anger doesn't disappear — it leaks out indirectly or erupts later. Healthy expression beats suppression.

Q17. A "trigger journal" is a tool where you...

a. Track what events tend to set off your anger and how you responded ✓ CORRECT

- b. Write angry letters and send them
- c. List people you're mad at
- d. Record other people's bad behavior

HINT Patterns are easier to spot when written down.

EXPLANATION Logging triggers and reactions reveals patterns over time so you can plan better responses.

Q18. If anger is hurting your job, relationships, or health, you should...

a. Consider speaking with a therapist or anger management group ✓ CORRECT

- b. Tough it out alone
- c. Cut everyone off
- d. Ignore it

HINT Some problems benefit from a trained outside perspective.

EXPLANATION Therapists and groups have tools and accountability that are hard to replicate alone.

Q19. Which is NOT a healthy coping strategy for anger?

a. Driving recklessly to "blow off steam" ✓ CORRECT

- b. Walking away to cool down
- c. Talking with a trusted friend
- d. Journaling

HINT Look for the option that puts other people in danger.

EXPLANATION Reckless driving channels anger into something that can hurt or kill — yourself or someone else.

Q20. Forgiveness, in the context of anger management, means...

a. Releasing your own resentment so it doesn't keep harming YOU ✓ CORRECT

- b. Saying what the other person did was OK
- c. Forgetting it ever happened
- d. Going back to a harmful relationship

HINT It's primarily for YOUR benefit, not theirs.

EXPLANATION Forgiveness frees you from carrying the weight. It doesn't require contact, reconciliation, or excusing the wrong.

Topic 2: Police Interaction Best Practices

20 questions

Q21. When approached by police, where should your hands be?

a. Visible — on the steering wheel if in a car, or at your sides ✓ CORRECT

- b. In your pockets
- c. Behind your back
- d. Holding your phone up to record

HINT What an officer can see, they don't have to fear.

EXPLANATION Officer safety is their top concern; visible hands signal you're not a threat and de-escalate immediately.

Q22. Your opening words to an officer should ideally be...

a. Calm and respectful — e.g., "Good evening, officer" ✓ CORRECT

- b. "Why are you stopping me?"
- c. Aggressive
- d. Total silence

HINT First impressions set the tone for the whole encounter.

EXPLANATION A calm opening lowers the temperature for both of you and makes the rest of the stop go smoother.

Q23. If pulled over at night, what helps officers feel safe approaching?

a. Turn on your interior dome light ✓ CORRECT

- b. Turn your headlights to bright
- c. Get out and walk toward their car
- d. Hide your hands

HINT Help the officer see inside the car safely.

EXPLANATION Lit interior makes you and the car visible, removing a common source of officer anxiety on night stops.

Q24. Before reaching for your wallet or glove compartment, you should...

a. Tell the officer what you're about to do, then move slowly ✓ CORRECT

- b. Just grab it quickly
- c. Argue first
- d. Hide your movements

HINT Officers can't see your hands inside a glove box.

EXPLANATION Telling them what you're about to do removes any ambiguity about whether you're reaching for something dangerous.

Q25. Why are sudden movements dangerous during a police encounter?

a. They can be misread as a threat ✓ CORRECT

- b. They speed up the stop
- c. They make you appear confident
- d. They help officers like you more

HINT Officers train for split-second decisions.

EXPLANATION Quick movements look the same whether you're grabbing your ID or a weapon — slow movement keeps the situation calm.

Q26. Recording a police encounter on your phone is...

a. Generally legal in public — do it openly, not threateningly ✓ CORRECT

- b. Always illegal
- c. Only legal in a few states
- d. A federal crime

HINT It's protected expression.

EXPLANATION Federal courts hold that recording police in public is protected by the First Amendment, as long as you don't interfere.

Q27. If you choose to record, you should...

a. Hold the phone visibly and announce you're recording ✓ CORRECT

- b. Hide the phone
- c. Tell the officer the phone is a weapon
- d. Block the officer's face

HINT Hiding it looks suspicious; brandishing it looks confrontational.

EXPLANATION Open, calm recording is both legal and de-escalating — it signals documentation, not escalation.

Q28. If officers are giving you commands, your priority should be to...

a. Comply now, contest later (in court or with a complaint) ✓ CORRECT

- b. Argue your case immediately
- c. Resist
- d. Run

HINT The street is not the courtroom.

EXPLANATION The roadside is the worst place to win an argument. Compliance keeps you safe; the court is where rights get vindicated.

Q29. "Comply now, contest later" means...

a. Get through the encounter safely; address grievances later through legal channels ✓ CORRECT

- b. Never push back against unfair treatment
- c. Always plead guilty
- d. Avoid lawyers

HINT It's about timing, not surrender.

EXPLANATION Saving the fight for the proper venue (court, complaint, lawyer) preserves your physical safety and your legal case.

Q30. If you believe an officer is wrong, the RIGHT time to challenge it is...

a. In court, through a complaint, or with an attorney ✓ CORRECT

- b. Right there on the street
- c. By fighting back
- d. By running away

HINT Where can you bring evidence, witnesses, and a lawyer?

EXPLANATION Courts, complaints, and attorneys are designed to hold officers accountable. The street is not.

Q31. The safest physical posture during a stop is...

a. Hands visible, calm voice, slow movements ✓ CORRECT

- b. Hands in pockets, raised voice
- c. Turning your back to the officer
- d. Reaching into bags

HINT Three things together: what they see, what they hear, how you move.

EXPLANATION These three signal non-threat across visual, auditory, and physical channels at once.

Q32. If you're a passenger and the driver is being addressed, you should...

a. Stay quiet unless directly asked, keep your hands visible ✓ CORRECT

- b. Speak over the driver
- c. Get out of the car
- d. Argue with the officer

HINT It's the driver's stop — back them up by staying calm.

EXPLANATION Passengers escalating the encounter make it worse for the driver and themselves.

Q33. When asked to step out of the vehicle, you should...

a. Comply calmly; you can ask "Am I being detained?" but still step out ✓ CORRECT

- b. Refuse
- c. Drive away
- d. Roll the window up

HINT You can ask questions but still need to step out.

EXPLANATION Officers may order you out of the car during a lawful stop (Pennsylvania v. Mimms). Refusing creates more risk.

Q34. If multiple officers are present, you should...

a. Speak respectfully and follow the lead officer's instructions ✓ CORRECT

- b. Yell at all of them
- c. Pick a side
- d. Ignore them

HINT Pick one voice to focus on.

EXPLANATION Arguing with multiple officers escalates fast. Address the lead officer and stay respectful.

Q35. Lying to an officer is...

a. Usually a crime — and it can make things worse ✓ CORRECT

- b. Always legal
- c. Smart strategy
- d. Required by law

HINT Giving false info to an officer is its own offense.

EXPLANATION Lying to law enforcement can be charged separately and almost always makes the original situation worse.

Q36. If you don't want to answer a question, you can say...

a. "I'm choosing to remain silent" — politely and clearly ✓ CORRECT

b. "Mind your business"

c. Nothing at all

d. Yell at the officer

HINT You can decline — but say it out loud.

EXPLANATION Stating the invocation clearly signals you're using your Fifth Amendment right, not just being uncooperative.

Q37. If you're unsure whether you can leave, the right question is...

a. "Am I being detained, or am I free to go?" ✓ CORRECT

b. "Are you done yet?"

c. "I don't have time for this"

d. Say nothing

HINT This is THE key phrase to know.

EXPLANATION This question forces the encounter to be either consensual (you can leave) or detention (your rights kick in).

Q38. Children in the car during a stop should be...

a. Told calmly to stay quiet by you ✓ CORRECT

b. Told to get out

c. Encouraged to talk to the officer

d. Hidden

HINT Your calm sets theirs.

EXPLANATION Children mirror caregivers; staying calm reduces their distress and helps the stop go smoothly.

Q39. If you're carrying a legally owned firearm during a traffic stop, you should...

a. Inform the officer calmly, keep hands visible, follow their instructions ✓ CORRECT

b. Reach for it to show them

c. Hide it

d. Lie about it

HINT Surprise is the worst outcome for everyone.

EXPLANATION Telling the officer up front (without reaching for the firearm) removes the dangerous element of surprise.

Q40. The overall goal of every police interaction should be...

a. Get home safely; address concerns through proper channels later ✓ CORRECT

b. Win the argument

c. Prove the officer wrong

d. Speed things up

HINT Winning the moment vs. winning the long game.

EXPLANATION Court is for arguments; the roadside is for compliance and de-escalation. Get home first.

Topic 3: Common Things to Know — Police, Traffic, Public

20 questions

Q41. At a traffic stop, you should pull over to...

a. The right shoulder, as quickly and safely as possible ✓ CORRECT

b. The middle of the road

c. The left lane

d. Only the nearest parking lot

HINT Where is it safe to stop without blocking traffic?

EXPLANATION Right shoulder lets officers approach from the safer side, away from traffic.

Q42. While pulling over, you should...

a. Signal, slow down, move to the right shoulder ✓ CORRECT

- b. Speed up to a "safer" spot
- c. Stop in the lane
- d. Make a U-turn

HINT Communicate your intent to the officer behind you.

EXPLANATION Signaling and gradual slowing tells the officer you're cooperating, not fleeing.

Q43. After stopping, you should...

a. Turn off the engine, stay seated, hands on the wheel ✓ CORRECT

- b. Get out of the car
- c. Open the trunk
- d. Honk

HINT Make yourself easy to read.

EXPLANATION Engine off, hands visible, body still — all signal compliance and reduce officer anxiety.

Q44. Drivers in most U.S. states must provide which 3 documents on request?

a. Driver's license, vehicle registration, proof of insurance ✓ CORRECT

- b. Birth certificate, SSN card, passport
- c. Credit card, ID, voter card
- d. Lease, bank statement, work badge

HINT Three documents that prove your right to drive this car.

EXPLANATION Driver's license, vehicle registration, and proof of insurance are the standard documents most states require during a stop.

Q45. If asked "Do you know why I stopped you?", a safe response is...

a. "No officer, can you tell me?" — don't volunteer admissions ✓ CORRECT

- b. Confess everything
- c. "Because you don't like me"
- d. Pretend you didn't hear

HINT It's a fishing question — don't take the bait.

EXPLANATION Officers often ask this hoping for an admission. Politely deflecting doesn't lie; it just doesn't volunteer evidence.

Q46. If you don't have your license on you, you should...

a. Tell the officer truthfully and give your real name and info ✓ CORRECT

- b. Lie about your identity
- c. Drive away
- d. Hand over someone else's license

HINT Lying about your identity is its own crime.

EXPLANATION Forgetting your license is a minor violation. Lying about who you are can become a serious one.

Q47. Window tint that's too dark can be...

a. A lawful basis for a traffic stop in many states ✓ CORRECT

- b. Always legal
- c. Only a federal issue
- d. Never enforced

HINT States regulate visible light transmission through windows.

EXPLANATION Most states have tint limits and use them as lawful basis to initiate a stop.

Q48. In a public space, officers can...

a. Approach and talk to you; you may decline a search without cause ✓ CORRECT

- b. Search you anytime without reason
- c. Arrest you for walking
- d. Take your phone freely

HINT Officers can talk to anyone, but searches need cause.

EXPLANATION Casual contact is fine. A search of you or your belongings needs consent, a warrant, or probable cause.

Q49. A "consensual encounter" means...

a. You're free to leave at any time and aren't required to answer questions ✓ CORRECT

- b. You're under arrest
- c. You've already signed something
- d. You must answer everything

HINT Look at the word 'consensual' — both sides agreeing.

EXPLANATION If you haven't been detained, the encounter is consensual: you can decline to answer and walk away.

Q50. If an officer says "Stop", the right move is to...

a. Stop and ask politely "Am I being detained, or am I free to go?" ✓ CORRECT

- b. Run
- c. Argue
- d. Walk faster

HINT Don't run, but find out your status.

EXPLANATION Running can give probable cause to chase. Stopping and asking your status clarifies the encounter without escalating.

Q51. At a public event with bag checks or metal detectors...

a. You can usually refuse the search but may be denied entry ✓ CORRECT

- b. They're illegal
- c. You must hand over your phone
- d. You must answer questions about your job

HINT Private venues can set entry conditions.

EXPLANATION Private venues can require searches as a condition of entry. You can refuse but they can refuse to let you in.

Q52. At a DUI checkpoint, you generally must...

a. Roll your window down briefly and present documents on request ✓ CORRECT

- b. Drive through quickly
- c. Step out immediately
- d. Take a breath test without question

HINT Comply with the minimum required, no more.

EXPLANATION Checkpoints have specific legal procedures. Comply with the basics and don't volunteer extra information or items.

Q53. Refusing a breathalyzer at a stop usually results in...

a. Automatic license suspension under "implied consent" laws in most states ✓ CORRECT

- b. Nothing
- c. A free pass
- d. A cash reward

HINT Implied consent laws apply when you got your license.

EXPLANATION By accepting a driver's license, you implicitly consented to BAC testing. Refusal usually triggers automatic suspension.

Q54. If you're cited and disagree with the ticket, you should...

a. Sign (signing is NOT an admission of guilt) and contest it in court ✓ CORRECT

- b. Tear up the ticket
- c. Refuse to sign
- d. Yell at the officer

HINT Signing isn't admitting guilt.

EXPLANATION Signing is just a promise to appear or pay. The proper place to fight the ticket is court.

Q55. Signing a traffic ticket means...

a. You're promising to appear in court or pay — NOT admitting guilt ✓ CORRECT

- b. You're admitting guilt
- c. You waived your rights
- d. The case is over

HINT It's a notice, not a confession.

EXPLANATION Your signature acknowledges receipt and a court date — nothing about whether you committed the offense.

Q56. In public, regarding recording police, you have the right to...

a. Record openly AND refuse to record — both are protected ✓ CORRECT

- b. Only record
- c. Only refuse to record
- d. Neither

HINT First Amendment cuts both ways.

EXPLANATION You're free to record under the First Amendment, and also free not to. Neither can be compelled.

Q57. If you witness a public incident, the best action is to...

a. Call 911, observe details, give a statement if asked ✓ CORRECT

- b. Get involved physically
- c. Tweet about it first
- d. Ignore it

HINT Be useful without becoming a second victim.

EXPLANATION Calling 911 and being a credible witness is far more valuable than intervening physically.

Q58. Walking away during a CONSENSUAL encounter (no detention) is...

a. Generally lawful — ask "Am I free to go?" first if unsure ✓ CORRECT

- b. A crime
- c. Resisting arrest
- d. A federal offense

HINT If not detained, you're free.

EXPLANATION Without detention, the encounter is consensual and you can leave. Asking 'Am I free to go?' confirms your status.

Q59. An open container of alcohol in a vehicle is...

a. Illegal in most states, even for passengers ✓ CORRECT

- b. Always legal
- c. Only illegal for the driver
- d. A federal law issue only

HINT Most states extend the open container ban to the whole car.

EXPLANATION Open container laws typically apply to all occupants, not just the driver.

Q60. In most states, you yield to an emergency vehicle by...

- a. Pulling to the right shoulder and stopping until it passes ✓ CORRECT
- b. Speeding up
- c. Stopping in the middle lane
- d. Honking

HINT Get out of the way, period.

EXPLANATION Pulling right and stopping is the universal rule, designed to give emergency vehicles a predictable path.

Topic 4: Your Rights When Stopped by Police

20 questions

Q61. The Fifth Amendment gives you the right to...

- a. Remain silent — to not incriminate yourself ✓ CORRECT
- b. Speak freely
- c. Bear arms
- d. A jury trial

HINT Protects against self-incrimination.

EXPLANATION The Fifth Amendment prevents the government from forcing you to testify against yourself.

Q62. The Fourth Amendment protects you against...

- a. Unreasonable searches and seizures ✓ CORRECT
- b. Cruel and unusual punishment
- c. Self-incrimination
- d. Slavery

HINT Protects your person, property, and effects.

EXPLANATION The Fourth Amendment requires warrants or probable cause for most searches and arrests.

Q63. The Sixth Amendment guarantees the right to...

a. An attorney during criminal prosecution ✓ CORRECT

- b. Bear arms
- c. Remain silent
- d. Refuse a search

HINT Trial rights — including counsel.

EXPLANATION The Sixth Amendment guarantees the right to a lawyer when you're being prosecuted criminally.

Q64. You have the right to ask for an attorney...

a. As soon as you're in custody or before answering questions ✓ CORRECT

- b. Only after conviction
- c. Only on weekdays
- d. Never

HINT Don't wait until court.

EXPLANATION The right to counsel kicks in early — invoke it as soon as you face custodial questioning.

Q65. Miranda rights must be read to you...

a. Before custodial interrogation — you must BE in custody AND being questioned ✓ CORRECT

- b. Every single time an officer talks to you
- c. Only on TV
- d. After any arrest, regardless of questioning

HINT Both conditions must be true.

EXPLANATION Officers don't have to Mirandize you on every contact — only when you're in custody AND being interrogated.

Q66. If officers don't read Miranda but don't question you, the case is...

a. NOT automatically dismissed — Miranda only affects statements made during interrogation ✓ CORRECT

- b. Automatically thrown out
- c. Automatically won
- d. Sent to federal court

HINT Miranda only affects statements, not the whole case.

EXPLANATION If no statements were taken during interrogation, there's nothing to suppress under Miranda — the case can still proceed.

Q67. You can refuse a search of your vehicle when there's...

a. No warrant, no probable cause, and you have not given consent ✓ CORRECT

- b. A lawyer present
- c. An officer present
- d. A passenger

HINT Without those three things, you can decline.

EXPLANATION Police need a warrant, probable cause, or your consent to search. Take away those and you can refuse.

Q68. To refuse a search, you should clearly say...

a. "I do not consent to a search" ✓ CORRECT

- b. Nothing — just stay silent
- c. Physically block them
- d. "You can't do that"

HINT Silence can be misread as agreement.

EXPLANATION Saying 'I do not consent to a search' is the cleanest way to preserve your Fourth Amendment claim later.

Q69. Even if you refuse consent, officers can still search if they have...

a. A warrant or probable cause ✓ CORRECT

- b. A bad mood
- c. Permission from your friend
- d. A coin flip

HINT Your refusal doesn't override their independent legal basis.

EXPLANATION Refusal protects you when the search is consent-based; it doesn't stop a warrant or probable cause search.

Q70. To invoke your right to remain silent, you should...

a. Say it out loud — "I am invoking my right to remain silent" ✓ CORRECT

- b. Just stay quiet without saying anything
- c. Whisper it
- d. Nothing — silence is automatic

HINT Just being quiet isn't enough.

EXPLANATION Salinas v. Texas confirmed you must actually invoke the right — silence alone can be used against you.

Q71. Once you ask for a lawyer, officers should...

a. Stop questioning until your attorney is present ✓ CORRECT

- b. Keep asking questions anyway
- c. Arrest you faster
- d. Take your phone

HINT Edwards v. Arizona — once invoked, questioning ends.

EXPLANATION Once you clearly ask for a lawyer, officers must stop interrogating until counsel is present.

Q72. Recording the police in public is generally protected by the...

a. First Amendment ✓ CORRECT

- b. Second Amendment
- c. Third Amendment
- d. It is not protected

HINT Protected speech.

EXPLANATION Federal courts hold that recording police in public is protected expression under the First Amendment.

Q73. In Virginia, if you're not driving and not lawfully detained, are you required to give your name?

a. Generally no — Virginia has no broad "stop and identify" statute (rules differ by state) ✓ CORRECT

- b. Yes, always
- c. Only at night
- d. Only if you're sitting

HINT Virginia has no broad 'stop and identify' statute for pedestrians.

EXPLANATION States vary on stop-and-identify laws. In Virginia, pedestrians not lawfully detained generally don't have to provide a name.

Q74. While DRIVING, you generally must show ID (your license) on request because...

a. Driving is a regulated privilege that requires a license ✓ CORRECT

- b. Of the First Amendment
- c. Officers can demand anything from anyone
- d. Of random local rules

HINT Driving is a privilege, not a right.

EXPLANATION Operating a vehicle is a regulated privilege; producing your license on request is part of that bargain.

Q75. "Probable cause" means...

a. Specific facts that would lead a reasonable person to believe a crime occurred ✓ CORRECT

- b. Any hunch
- c. The officer's gut feeling
- d. A coin flip

HINT Higher standard than a hunch.

EXPLANATION Probable cause requires specific facts that would lead a reasonable person to believe a crime has occurred.

Q76. "Reasonable suspicion" is...

a. A lower standard than probable cause — enough to briefly DETAIN someone to investigate ✓ CORRECT

- b. The same as probable cause
- c. Just a guess
- d. No legal standard at all

HINT Enough to investigate, not enough to arrest.

EXPLANATION Reasonable suspicion (Terry v. Ohio) lets officers briefly detain you to investigate, but isn't enough to arrest or search fully.

Q77. If an officer asks "Mind if I take a look?" and you say "yes" or "go ahead", you have...

a. Given consent — you've waived your right to refuse for that search ✓ CORRECT

- b. Said something meaningless
- c. Tricked them
- d. Done nothing legally

HINT Casual phrasing can carry real legal weight.

EXPLANATION Once you agree, you've waived your Fourth Amendment objection for that search. Be careful with casual yeses.

Q78. The phrase "Am I being detained, or am I free to go?" helps you...

a. Determine whether you're legally required to stay ✓ CORRECT

- b. Anger the officer
- c. Stop the stop
- d. Cancel a ticket

HINT Two answers, two very different sets of rights.

EXPLANATION The answer flips the encounter between consensual (you can leave) and detention (rights kick in, you must stay).

Q79. Excessive-force claims are protected under which amendment?

a. Fourth Amendment (unreasonable seizures) ✓ CORRECT

- b. First Amendment
- c. Tenth Amendment
- d. No amendment

HINT It's analyzed as an unreasonable seizure.

EXPLANATION Graham v. Connor: excessive force claims arise under the Fourth Amendment's reasonable seizure standard.

Q80. If your rights were violated, the right place to address it is...

a. Through a lawyer, internal affairs complaint, civilian review board, or civil lawsuit ✓ CORRECT

- b. Resisting on the scene
- c. Social media only
- d. Never

HINT Use the system designed for it.

EXPLANATION Internal affairs, civilian review boards, and civil rights lawsuits are the legal remedies for rights violations.

Topic 5: Mental Therapy / Mental Health

20 questions

Q81. Therapy is for...

a. Anyone wanting to understand themselves better, manage stress, or work through challenges ✓ CORRECT

- b. Only people in crisis
- c. Only women
- d. Only people on medication

HINT Think of it like a gym for your mind.

EXPLANATION Therapy isn't only for crises. Anyone working on themselves can benefit.
